SCRAPS OF WISDOM

Waterloo County Quilters' Guild

President's Message: Resiliency and Hope

In the last year, our guild has demonstrated such resiliency. It was a year ago this month that we introduced Zoom to our guild members. We held practice sessions to help guild members become comfortable using the new platform and planned for our first on-line guild meeting. We also introduced the Sewing Together, But Apart days as well, as a way to gather socially, learn from guest speakers and as a vehicle to practice and familiarize ourselves with Zoom. Our journey over the last year has been a true demonstration of our guild's resiliency.

It has also been a year of hope and renewal, as we faced lockdowns, sewed masks, enjoyed new experiences on-line with amazing speakers and wonderful workshops, and most recently, many have received their first vaccinations. We are now eagerly anticipating and hoping for a brighter summer ahead, especially as we witness the greening of our environment and the beginnings of new growth in our gardens.

This is also the time of year when we encourage our members to renew their guild memberships for the next year. I encourage you to carefully read the detailed information on the preceding pages of this newsletter about how to renew your membership. The Program Committee is in the process of finalizing the guest speakers and workshops for next year. It looks like a wonderful lineup of exciting activities! You will not want to miss out, so be sure to get your renewal submitted.

All entries for the President's Challenge are due May 10th. Please take a photo of your entry and sent it to Kathy Bissett on or before that date. Please include any comments or descriptions when you send your photo. Kathy will prepare a slide show of the entries. A few days later, all members will receive an email with the slide show for you to view. You will be able to select your favorite project, and using the link provided in the email, you will be able to go to "Survey Monkey" where you will be able to vote for your choice. The project receiving the greatest number of votes will receive a very unique prize—the first time we are able to offer this. It will be a gift certificate/coupon for $25.00 that can be used in our guild's on-line store, which can be used toward the purchase of anything in our on-line store, e.g. membership renewal, workshops, STBA days, etc. There is still time to enter.

Members of our guild are invited to participate in the Global Quilt Connections "All Star Quilt Event", which takes place on May 22 & 23 from 3 - 6pm. Our guild has covered the registration cost for our membership. Several days before the event you will receive the necessary Zoom log-in and additional information. Be sure to read page 16 in this newsletter, where you will find the list of quilt teachers who will be presenting. It should be a fun learning experience.

Stay safe, everyone. Happy quilting. Inge Ford

The Waterloo County Quilters' Guild provides an opportunity for quilters to learn in a supportive, sharing, social environment. We encourage you to get the most out of your membership by becoming more deeply involved in the guild.

May Speaker - Lorraine Roy

Woven Woods: Of Roots and Threads

Lorraine was introduced to fabric arts at an early age which led to a full time career in art textiles. She graduated with a BSc in Agriculture, majoring in Ornamental Horticulture and has been studying developments in tree research since graduating. Combining her love of fabrics and science, Lorraine creates images in fabric using raw edged machine appliqué techniques and embroidery to create wall hangings and framed pieces inspired by the biology, mythology and symbolism of trees.

'Woodland Tamaracks'

'Burning'

Joining us from the beautiful Niagara Escarpment, Lorraine will share her presentation about the making and the science behind the Woven Woods exhibition that will be at the Homer Watson Gallery from May 21st to August 29th, 2021.

This promises to be an interesting evening!

American Quilters' Society "All Star" Interviews

Liz Hammonds, AQS Director of Education, hosts a series of videos that were developed as a way to provide some alternatives during COVID-19. In these videos, she meets with and interviews the quilt industry's biggest "stars" as they tell stories and showcase some of their favorite quilts. Many of the videos begin with a tour of the quilter's sewing space and home. So, grab a cup of your favorite beverage and check out these videos. The following are direct links to the video interviews of some of my favorites:

Gudrun Erla of GE Designs and "Topsy Tuesdays"

Are you a fan of Gudrun Erla of GE Designs? Gudrun was born and raised in Iceland and currently lives in Minnesota. She has authored 21 books, designed many patterns and is sought after internationally as a speaker and teacher. Gudrun produces a regular video called "Topsy Tuesdays" where she shares tips and strategies and quilt-alongs. On April 27th she celebrated her 100th episode. She also included a clip on how to bind a 60 degree corner by machine. She is the designer of the well known Stripology rulers which she demonstrates in some of her videos. Click this link to access her 100th video. This will also take you to her other videos on her you tube channel.

WORKSHOP!

Spinoff Workshop with Daisy Aschehoug

Dates: Saturday, June 19th and 26th

Time: 9:30am - 12pm

Cost: $75 for both sessions

Maximum Participants: 20

The 'Spinoff Quilt' is perfect for quilters new to piecing with curves. The class includes the basics of sewing a precise quarter-circle square, and we'll talk about how to achieve an accurate circle for the centre of the quilt design. The class will cover strategies for selecting fabric, tips and tricks for curved piecing and alternate arrangements to create different effects. 'Spinoff' finishes at 45" square. Class fee includes pattern pdf for digital download. Register now at our online store.

LIBRARY NEWS

Due to the current provincial lockdown, library books will not be available this month. We'll keep you updated as to when this service resumes.

2021 Feature Quilt - Springtime in Ontario

Renske Helmuth is no stranger to the New Hamburg Mennonite Relief Sale (NHMRS) Quilt Auction. Her exquisite quilts have achieved legendary status at the sale. Each of the eight quilts she has donated has been the featured quilt of the year and has received top bid, including Kaleidoscope of Nations (2003) which sold for a record-breaking $44,000, and Threads of Africa (2015) which went for $42,000.

In previous years, Renske—with help from her friends at the Waterloo County Quilters' Guild and Listowel Mennonite Church—has designed and produced each quilt especially for the Relief Sale. This year, however, she is breaking with tradition and offering a special award winning quilt from her own collection that she created 20 years ago. (continued)

“Springtime in Ontario” features fifteen panels of exquisitely hand-appliquéd flowers common in Ontario. “Most of these are flowers around the farm and in my garden,” says Renske. Her choice of flowers was constrained by several variables. “I love tulips, but they didn’t fit [within the pattern of the quilt],” recalls Renske. “You can also only go so far when working with fabric—you are limited by the available colours.” The quilt was designed, hand appliquéd and hand embroidered by Renske herself, while Minerva Clemmer finished it off by hand-quilting the top, batting and back together.

In the early 2000’s Renske took “Springtime in Ontario” on the road, submitting it to quilting shows across North America when it won numerous awards, including:

- 1st Prize (Canada) - World Quilt Competition in Lansing, Michigan
- 1st Prize - Traditional Large - National Juried Show (Quilt Canada) in Edmonton, Alberta
- 1st Prize and Viewer’s Choice awards at the Ontario Juried Show
- Honourable Mention in the two-person category at the International Quilt Festival, Houston Texas
- Member’s Choice at the Waterloo County Quilters’ Guild Quilt Show

Renske started quilting seriously in the mid-1900’s and estimates she has made hundreds of quilted pieces, from full-sized feature quilts to handmade postcards she mails to family and friends every year. Despite the extraordinary beauty of her designs, the awards and record-breaking accolades of her quilts, she rejects the “artist” label. “I’m not an artist,” she says flatly. “I’m a farmer—I like gardening, I like music, and I like quilting. I’ve always got [a quilt] on the go, but it’s not all I do.” She does concede, however, that the quilts themselves could be considered works of art, as well they should.

Renske also makes it clear that creating a quilt is a team project, the Waterloo County Quilters’ Guild being her most frequent collaborators. She points out that Plain and Fancy, the feature quilt at the 2011 NHMRS Quilt Auction, required the work of 100 quilters to piece together. “I come up with the design and the vision, but my quilts are almost always a community effort.”

While the 2021 New Hamburg Mennonite Relief Sale has been cancelled, a virtual quilt auction will take place on Saturday, May 29. The virtual quilt auction was a huge success in 2020 with quilt prices and total funds raised exceeding those in recent years.

The 2020 NHMRS Feature Quilt can be viewed in the lower atrium of the MCC building (50 Kent St, Kitchener, Ontario).

Open Sewing Days

Zoom continues to provide a great way for our members to participate in informal on-line gatherings each week. You are invited to come and join us as we sew, laugh, ask questions, share ideas, learn from each other—and most importantly connect with one another and have fun!

We will continue to gather every Monday afternoon from 2:00 - 4:00. You can sew, join in the dialogue or just sit back and listen. It is a very informal gathering with no agenda.

There will also be one Saturday Open Sewing gathering in May and one in June. Mark Saturday, May 15 and Saturday, June 12 from 10:00 - 12:00pm on your calendar.

The Zoom link for these events will be available in the Friday email update. Just click the Zoom link and join in on the fun. All members are welcome.

Sewing Together, But Apart Days

Spend the day together, sharing and learning, while staying safe

Many of our guild members have enjoyed the opportunity to participate in the Sewing Together, But Apart days. We continue to have about forty participants attend each month. It has been a wonderful way to get to know fellow quilters, have some fun, learn something new and certainly a great diversion from the negative aspects of COVID-19. To participate, please register through the on-line store on our guild's website.

We also greatly appreciate the generous door prize donations that have been provided each month from Ye Olde Fabric Shoppe in Stratford.

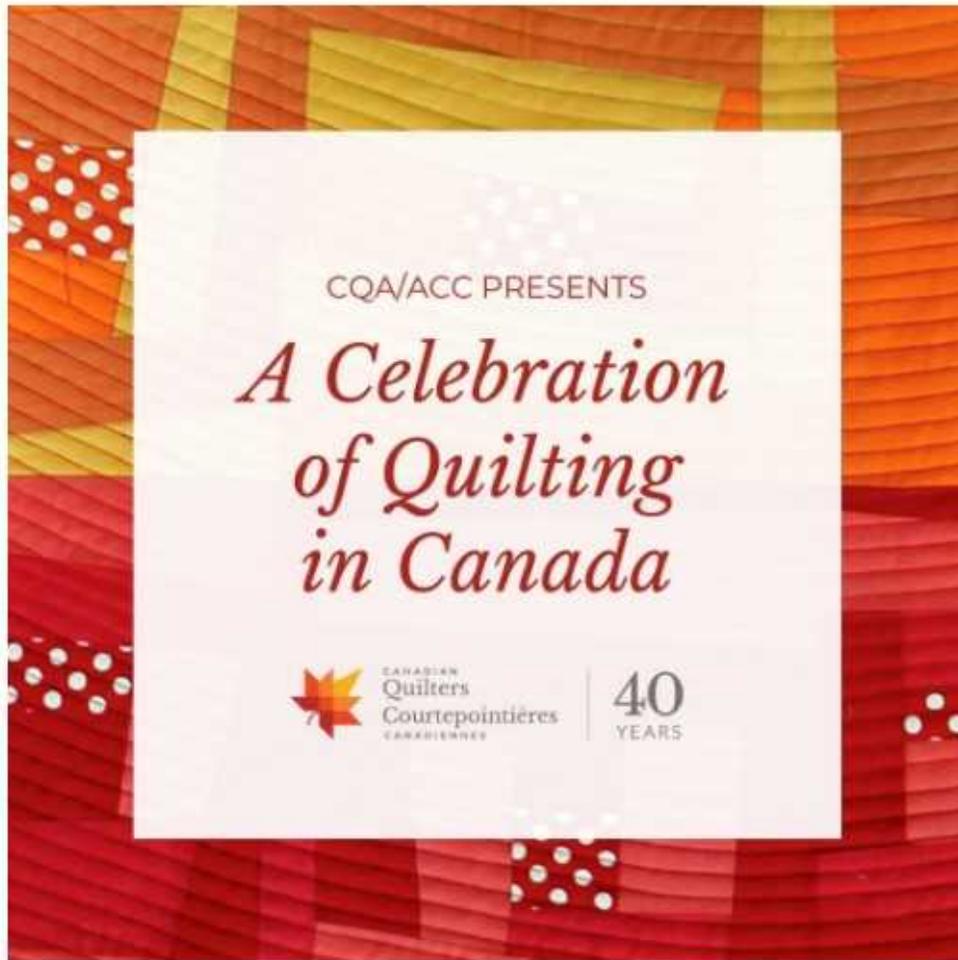

Detailed information and the Zoom link for each day will be sent to all registered participants by 6:00pm the day before each STBA day.

Participants are encouraged to come for all or part of the day. We are fortunate to be able to welcome the following speakers for May and June:

Wednesday, May 12 – Lilo Bowman from California will share a presentation about how to organize our sewing spaces – “Love Where You Create: It’s Not a One Size Fits All Solution”. Lilo currently works as the Editor-in-Chief of “The Quilt Show”. She is a garment sewer, quilter, author and teacher, who has recently published a new book, “Love Your Creative Space”.

Wednesday, June 9 – Barbara J. Eikmeier, from Lansing, Michigan will share a lecture called “It’s All in the Sashings!” Do you have a set of blocks that you just cannot decide what to do with? Barbara will share a series of quilts and tops that feature blocks set with sashings and cornerstones. Some are simple and others are more involved with secondary designs created within the sashings and cornerstones. See side by side examples of the same setting and learn how different they look based on the blocks and fabric choices. Barbara is a quilter, fabric designer, author of four quilting books and popular teacher who presents programs and workshops across the country.

Plans are currently being finalized for more STBA days, featuring a variety of topics and experiences with some wonderful guest presenters. More information will be shared later in June.
