

Linda Martin-Mills

January 12, 2022

The Reluctant Quilter

After registering for this day, please send an email to fordinge@gmail.com as requested on the home page of the website. Now, about the STBA day... Join us for all or part of the day. We will gather at 9:00 a.m., enjoy time together as a large group, move into small groups and provide time for socializing and individual sewing.

Our theme for the day will be “our quilting journeys”. How, when, and why did you become a quilter? What motivated you to continue your quilting journey? In the afternoon, we will welcome Linda Martin-Mills as our guest speaker. Her topic is “The Reluctant Quilter”. She will share a presentation that will be both inspiring and motivating as she describes her reluctant journey to becoming a quilter. She will share 50 slides featuring a wide variety of quilts that she has made along her journey. Linda is a wife, a mother, and a new grandmother. She also works as a nurse at a major hospital in Hopewell, New Jersey. Her quilting journey will be sure to inspire quilters as we continue along our own quilting journeys.

