

Master the Meander with Angela Walters

Getting started with free-motion quilting is easier than you might think! In this class, Angela Walters shows you everything you need to get started on your free-motion quilting journey and teaches you several meanders you can use on your quilts. This class is for the true machine quilting beginner, starting with taking your first stitches to maneuvering your way around a quilt. With practical tips for getting the most out of your practice sessions as well as real-life advice on how to make your quilting look perfect (even if it isn't), this class will leave you more confident and ready to tackle your unfinished quilt tops.
