My Favourite Quilting Notions

Our focus for the day will be a very practical and interesting look at quilting notions. What are your favourite quilting notions?

In the afternoon, our guest speaker will be Carolina Moore from San Diego. Carolina is a quilt pattern designer, award winning quilter, blogger, and has many tutorials available on her site. She is the inventor of the “Spot on Dot”, which is a set of adhesive magnifying lenses designed for quilting rulers. She is known for her blog “Always Expect Moore.com” and her popular YouTube Channel where she teaches quilting and sewing. Her popular videos include teaching Cricut for quilters, demonstrating various quilting rulers and notions, and sewing projects from start to finish. A prolific quilter, Carolina Moore designs dozens of patterns each year and provides a free quilt block pattern each month on her blog. She is an Art Gallery Fabrics Sewcialite, Baby Lock Ambassador, and Accuquilt Pattern Designer.

Her lecture in the afternoon will focus on “My Favourite Quilting Notions” where she will highlight, explain and share a wide variety of quilting notions and how they will benefit our quilting hobby. Carolina’s energy is infectious and her knowledge extensive. Find her blog at www.AlwaysExpectMoore.com.
