Waterloo County Quilters' Guild

President's June Message

As I write this, my last newsletter submission as president, I can't help but think back on the past year, and the years leading up to it. I never would have thought I would have been given the opportunity to work alongside such an amazing group of volunteers. To the executive, committees, and outreach volunteers, I can't say 'thank you' enough. There are not enough words to properly express my gratitude for all you do to make our guild one of which we can all be proud. We are not perfect, but in my opinion, we are one amazing group of quilters.

I am going to leave you with a challenge, a personal challenge that could profoundly change your life, as a quilter, and as a person. Think back to your playground days, to those days when you were brave, when you were fearless. When you walked up to a total stranger and asked them to play on the slide with you. Or maybe, you were the fearless and silent type. You just walked up to someone and automatically started playing. I often wonder when did I start to become fearful? When did I stop being brave? When did I stop walking up to strangers and asking them to play? Over the next few weeks, I want you to reach out to someone you don't know in the guild. Go for coffee, do a day of the July Shop Hop. Be fearless. Maybe it won't work out; so what? Would that have stopped you on the playground, or would you have just walked up to the next person?

I had the strength to be fearless. One day last spring, during an Open Sewing Monday, someone tossed out an invitation into the air, "I'm going shopping on Wednesday, if anyone wants to join in." We were all still masking, we were still a bit fearful, but I swallowed up that fear and said, "That would be great. I will take you up on that offer". We had fun, lots of laughs, and still get together. It's been over a year of friendship. Two people had to be fearless to make that happen: the person who issued the invitation, and the person who accepted.

That step gave me the strength to be even more brave. Then I reached out to a few other people, I took the risk of being turned down, the risk of rejection. But the rewards, oh those rewards of laughter, tears, sharing and caring are so worth that little risk.

So this summer, be fearless, be brave, be that child on the playground with the strength, courage and tenacity to just keep looking until you find that friend who wants to play.

Thank you, for a great year; no, make that an amazing year. I just know the Waterloo County Quilters' Guild will continue to grow and strengthen in skills, knowledge, philanthropy and friendships.

- Gail Berry-Graham, President

The Waterloo County Quilters' Guild provides an opportunity for quilters to learn in a supportive, sharing, social environment. We encourage you to get the most out of your membership by becoming more deeply involved in the guild.

“EPP VS FPP: The Showdown”

with Tina Craig

We are delighted to have Tina Craig join us from Rhode Island, USA, for our June meeting! Tina will present her lecture, “EPP (English Paper Piecing) vs FPP (Foundation Paper Piecing): The Showdown”. In this presentation, Tina will give us an overview of each technique, followed by thirty quilts illustrating the versatility of both techniques.

Tina Craig has been quilting since 1990, and tries to challenge herself to learn something new with every quilt. She specializes in precision piecing (Foundation and English paper piecing) and domestic machine quilting.

When she moved to a seaside town in southern Rhode Island in 1997, Seaside Stitches was born.

Tina is a member of the Modern Quilt Guild and three local guilds, serving as co-vice president of Ninigret Quilters. Her quilts have been awarded ‘Best in Show’ at three local shows and her work has been exhibited regionally and nationally.

For more information about Tina and her work, please read her blog and subscribe to her monthly newsletter, Seaside Scoop, or visit the following:

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED MAKING A QUILT TOP FOR QUILTS OF VALOUR CANADA?

As a QOVC rep, I have 9½” pre-made blocks and a donation of over 50 metres of ‘O Canada’ fabric in 1 metre cuts. Stop by and see me at June Gatherings for the pre-made Hug Blocks, or fabric that could be used with a 3 yard quilt pattern and border to make the minimum size requirement of 55” x 70”. For more information, or to pre-order a kit, contact Deby Wettges by email or phone (check the membership list). Your time and effort will comfort a veteran who has served in the Canadian Armed Forces.

Tannis Dawson was in town from Winnipeg a couple of weeks ago, so we arranged for Deby Wettges to present her with her rosette for the UFO Challenge.

GATHERINGS

Wednesday June 7, 2023 10:30am - 3:00pm ET

Please join us for the final Gatherings of the year.

Our Featured Member is Judy Pearce. She will delight us with her approach to fabric collage.

"I will bring along several collage quilts for display and a collage project in progress. We will look at some photographs and images to determine which ones would work well to create a successful collage quilt, and some that wouldn't work well. A lot of the success of a piece is determined before a piece is even started, by choosing a good image. I'll also speak briefly about several methods I use to make a collage quilt. Unfortunately, there won't be time for each participant to create one on June 7th, but hopefully participants will pick up some tools and tricks so they have confidence to try it on their own.

If you have some photos you are considering for a fabric collage, and if you would like some input, I'll be happy to talk about it with you. May you have a project underway you'd like to bring along. I will do my brief presentation at 11:00am and the rest of the day I'll be there to brainstorm with you about your projects or answer questions about mine." - Judy Pearce

We will have the regular outreach groups, (PAL, SMILE, Memory, Fabric Curator, Quilts of Valour Canada, Strippers' Club), as well as Library (for returns and culled book sales) and Membership at the meeting.

The craft swap will also take place at the June Gatherings.

Doors open at 10:30 for the members.

Since this is our last event of this year, let's have a party. Please feel free to bring a savoury or sweet treat to share. We will supply the hot beverages. Remember to bring your mug.

We ask that you continue to wear a mask when in the Community Room, for everyone's protection.

September Gatherings: Boutique Sew Day

By Ev Cameron and Leah Mitchell

1. Ev Cameron will demonstrate how to machine sew a sock monkey.
2. Leah Mitchell will demonstrate how to sew an armchair chatelaine with a cathedral window design on the pocket using the “one seam flying geese” technique.
3. Leah will also demonstrate how to sew a bowl cozy for use in the microwave.

If you bring your sewing machine, you can sew one of the kits available. Please let Ev (evcameron@me.com) or Leah (hileahandbob@gmail.com) know which kit you would like to sew at Gatherings so they will know how many kits of each to prepare.

Looking for ideas for what to make for the Boutique?

- You could try your hand at making a journal cover for a dollar store journal. See the internet link in our January newsletter on page 11.
- How about a mug bag using the pattern featured on page 10 of our February newsletter?
- Casserole carriers are handy for carrying food to family picnics or church suppers. There are videos on YouTube for you to follow.
- Annie’s Fun & Fast Sewing Summer 2023 issue has some great ideas, including an iron caddy for transporting your hot iron at the end of your workshop day.
- And last but not least, Leah has prepared five roll-up tote bag kits to make for the boutique. You may take one home to make or work on it at Gatherings.

Final Month for Registering Quilts

We need YOUR quilted items for our 2023 Quilt Exhibit!

Every member of the WCQG has a contribution to make to our upcoming quilt exhibit. Why do we have a quilt exhibit? We think the main purpose is to demonstrate the creativity and love of quilting of our members. We have no judges at our exhibit—just friends, family members and fellow quilters, who share our love of quilting, and enjoy seeing a variety of quilting styles.

Beginners quilters, more experienced ones, and master quilters all have something to offer. We value every contribution and look forward to seeing what our members have accomplished over the last 4 years.

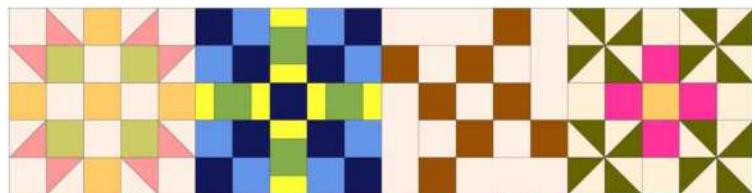

Please take this opportunity to add at least one quilt to our exhibit this October. Be proud of where you are in your quilting journey, and help us demonstrate all the diverse styles and creativity that our members possess.

You can find the registration form on the Guild website, under Quilt Exhibit, or at the June Gatherings on June 7th. Send your registrations and photos to Marg Sandiford by June 30th, and help to make our October 13th & 14th special.

- Elaine LaRonde and Inge Ford

Kerry Johnson will continue to collect empty thread spools of all sizes and materials (not just the wooden ones pictured above), even long arm cones, during Gatherings.

Virtual Show and Share for June

Please send pictures of your quilts, with a sentence or two about them, and the dimensions, to kathleenbissett@me.com by Sunday, June 18, so they can be included in our virtual Show and Share.

Quilt Exhibit 2023 Volunteers Needed

Thank you to all of the members who have already signed up to volunteer their time to help set up the quilt exhibit on October 13 and 14. Thursday, October 12 will be a busy day because all displays must be ready by the end of the day. We need your help!

We need people who can go up on ladders to assemble the PVC quilt racks. A lot of the ladies are bringing their husbands to help. We also need white rubber mallets, and a few more ladders; both tall and short. (Remember to put your name on your ladder.)

We could also use a few more volunteers on Wednesday evening, October 11, to help unload the PVC racks, etc., from the van. This is also the time when people are needed for washing the racks, sorting out hanging sheets, and marking the floor with masking tape for the various placement of exhibits.

We have offered to help students make up their community volunteer hours.

We need more people to take in quilts and prepare them for hanging, as well as the actual hanging of the quilts on the racks and around the perimeter. At the end of the exhibit, we need people to take down the quilts, and a few more for the quilt return. We also need a few more for the boutique on Friday at 2:30pm, and on Saturday at 5pm.

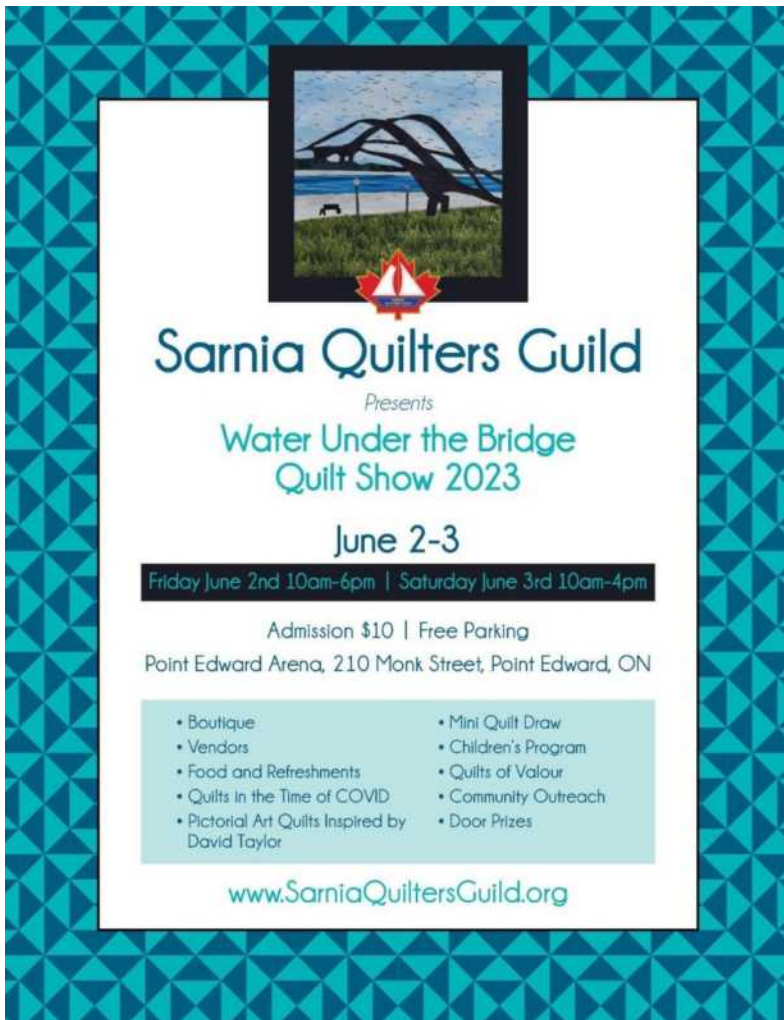

We have a new task category for setting up and taking down the decorations that are placed here and there around the exhibit hall. This will involve putting items around the exhibit after the quilts are hung on Thursday (about 2pm), and then on Saturday at 5pm, they will need to be collected prior to the quilts being taken down.

The Admissions table needs people on Saturday from 2:30 to 5pm. The Small Quilt draw need a few more people for Saturday from 10am to 12:30pm and 12:30pm to 2:30pm. White Gloving needs a few more people early Friday and Saturday, and one for Saturday from 12:30pm to 2:30pm. More people are needed for dismantling the racks, and for loading the truck at the end of the exhibit. This group will need white rubber mallets to disassemble the PVC racks. If you have a quilt in the exhibit, you could maybe plan to stay and help with the take down.

If you cannot make it to the June Gatherings, you could phone Linda Henderson 519-886-9927 or email: lghenders@gmail.com

Thanks you for your participation. We are going to have a great exhibit! - Linda Henderson

Sewing Together, But Apart - June & July 2023

Our June STBA will again feature two speakers.

On June 21st, we will have the opportunity to hear from Breanna Gaudaur, who will share her International Quilting Day presentation - "Instagram, Your New Quilting Tool". This will be a wonderful opportunity to learn from Breanna, as she shares a beginner friendly intro to Instagram. She will share how to use this platform as a tool to find quilting inspiration, and, possibly, new friends. Our guild's Instagram account is buzzing with lots of helpful posts. Breanna will help us gain confidence in our use of Instagram. She will also be able to answer any questions we might have been reluctant to ask at other times. This is your opportunity to do so. Instagram is becoming increasingly popular with younger generations. This is a great time to learn more about using Instagram and how to connect with quilting, but also with your younger family members. Our guild Instagram account (and Facebook) are very active accounts. Hannah Barlow, from our guild is posting regularly. Breanna's presentation will help all of us become better users of Instagram.

In the afternoon, Reed Johnson will join us from Florida. He will share his quilting journey, and a trunk show of beautiful quilts. Reed is a former trial attorney, who has now become a nationally known quilt designer, presenter, certified Quilt-in-a-Day instructor, and pattern designer. He has a special love of batiks, and all things related to quilting. He has a quilt pattern featured this month in one of the popular quilting magazines. Reed's trunk show will provide lots of inspiration, with the beautiful quilts he shares, as well as the wide variety of approaches—patterns, fabrics, etc.

Our June STBA day will provide lots of motivation, continued inspiration, and opportunities to learn from our speakers and each other. Hope you can join us.

We also have a special July STBA day scheduled for Wednesday, July 5th. Gail Sheppard from B.C., will be our speaker in the afternoon. Her presentation will motivate us to explore our scraps to create beautiful quilts. To find more information and/or to register, please visit our on-line store.

Open Sewing Mondays

Our Monday afternoon Open Sewing has continued to be well received by our guild members. From 2pm to 4pm every Monday afternoon, interested guild members are invited to join in our informal Zoom meetings. These will continue all summer long for any members who wish to join in. There is lots of conversation, sharing of ideas and questions, helpful tips and strategies, sharing what we might be working on—and always lots of fun and laughter—sometimes (often including other discussion topics) and social conversation. It is a wonderful way to get to know other quilters in our guild and to build friendships. Some people stay for a short time, many stay for the entire two hours.

It's a very relaxing and informal atmosphere, and a great motivator to explore and share quilting ideas and opportunities. Consider joining us during the summer as we continue with these fun Monday afternoon events. You can do this from your cottage, while sitting on your deck or balcony enjoying some iced tea, or from the comfort of your sewing room. The Zoom link for these sessions is always the same (until the end of August) and can always be found in the weekly update. - Inge Ford
