President's Message : Choices

Recently, I've experienced some down time which tends to lead to time spent thinking and reflecting about many things. I decided to emphasize the positive rather than dwell on the negative. As with the majority of our life, it's preferable for our guild if we have an attitude of gratitude as opposed to criticism. (I've previously written about the positive aspects of our guild.)

Hopefully, for the long-term health of our guild, issues won't spread into negative opinions that could develop into an illness, just like a virus. As preventative medicine, we can bring them to executive members via email, a phone call, or attending an executive meeting. As with some ailments, it takes time to investigate, consult with others, and gather enough information to come up with a solution. These remedies result in continued health.

I am grateful that the positives completely outweigh any potential negatives in our guild for me personally. We all have the right to our feelings and opinions. Consequently, we choose if our glass is half full or half empty. It's what we do with the glass and it's contents that make the difference.

It is our responsibility to realize as members, our guild has so much to offer ourselves and our community and to do all we are capable of to keep it positive and healthy. - Eileen Fennell, President

Executive Opportunities

We will be needing the following executive and chair people for our next guild year, 2017-2018: Vice-president, apprentice treasurer and afternoon librarian. Vice-president responsibilities include presiding at meetings in the absence of the president, conducting the election of officers at the AGM, presenting the list of nominees and calling for any further nominations from the floor and acting as executive liaison for the outreach committees and CQA. The Apprentice treasurer would shadow Darlene Yanke, our current treasurer, who would mentor you into the role of treasurer. The Afternoon librarian is responsible for setting up the library, purchasing books and organizing library helpers and the annual inventory.

Please start thinking about who you will nominate or if you would be willing to put in your own name, for these or any other executive position.

Pat Janowski's "Hearts Full of Love", shown at our November Guild meeting, inspired by a "stash buster" shared by Lisa Van Galen at a guild meeting a few years ago.

The Waterloo County Quilters' Guild provides an opportunity for quilters to learn in a supportive, sharing, social environment. We encourage you to get the most out of your membership by becoming more deeply involved in the guild.

February Program

Carol Ross Williamson

Our speaker this month is a member of our own guild, Carol Ross Williamson. She will share her love of quilting, her love of bright colours and information about how to make quilts visually exciting. Carol is a former artist and journalist and has had numerous courses on layout and colour. That knowledge has helped her pick out colours and fabrics for the quilts and to arrange them in a pleasing manner.

Many quilt books tell you how to choose colours, how to recognize the importance of value and contrast. But few books describe how to make quilts look better just by placing certain colours or blocks in certain locations. There is a science to this and an easy formula. Quilts selected for shows and awards often exhibit this formula, perhaps unwittingly.

Carol loves modern quilts using traditional patterns. Her quilts vary from tried and true patterns to original designs. They are bright and fun and reflect this time period. She will use her quilts to demonstrate her journey from traditional patterns, (she has always loved Amish quilts) to the freer form embraced today. The growth of the modern movement is fascinating and reflects our busy lifestyle where quilts can be whipped up quickly. Having fun and exploring new looks should resonate with her fellow quilters.

Thank you Sandy Campbell for sorting fabric into the marked bins. We will be adding a bin: Strips and Strings. Please put donations in the proper bins or give them to Sandy Campbell or Kathy Langill. We will also have a monthly helper. If the fabric is not suitable for quilting, it will be donated elsewhere.

WATERLOO — A dry house for women will soon be opening in Waterloo.

Vera's Place offers a supportive home for women recovering from substance abuse, a place where they can restart their lives.

"They're really on their way home," said Rev. Bruce Sweet, minister of Emmanuel United Church. "This provides a safe, dry environment."

Vera's Place emerged from a partnership between Emmanuel United and the House of Friendship, with plenty of support from the community.

"This is not a church project. This is a community project," said Karen Dixon, committee member and co-ordinator.

Emmanuel United owned a duplex in Waterloo, which had been used by the church and then rented out, but the 110-year-old building was deteriorating and essentially needed to be gutted with new electrical, plumbing and insulation added.

A fundraising campaign was started in late 2015 with a $350,000 goal for renovations.

"So much of it came from beyond the church," Sweet said.

The campaign kicked off with a $100,000 donation from Bob and Judy Astley. The name is in memory of Judy's mother Vera Armour, who raised four children in Waterloo Region and believed in supporting women on their life journey.

Just shy of $300,000 has been raised in cash, and tradespeople generously donated time and materials to transform the Dorset Street home.

"We could have never done this without the in-kind donations," Dixon said.

Work began last spring, with some delays due to heritage issues.

The House of Friendship recommended making it a dry house for women because while there are dry houses in the region for men, there aren't any spots for women.

The House of Friendship will take over once the women move in, running programs and helping the women move onto the next step.

Rent will be below market value, and subsidized by Thresholds Homes and Supports Inc., formerly Waterloo Regional Homes for Mental Health.

The official open house is on Feb. 9, and then the women will begin moving in the following week. Each side of the duplex has room for three women, who can stay up to 364 days.

"It gives them a space apart," Sweet said.

And that space is vital to continue recovery.

"Unless someone has stable housing, you cannot deal with other problems," Sweet said.

Emmanuel United knows about the need for supportive housing firsthand. It operates a drop-in centre called Bridgeport Café, which opens three afternoons a week to offer food, warmth and community to the homeless or marginally housed.

After years of work, the volunteers are thrilled the home is almost ready to open its doors to vulnerable women in need.

"Really delighted that it's come together so beautifully," Dixon said.

"We're quite happy that we were able to do this," Sweet added.

Mannheim Sewing Circle

February 8th, 9am to 4pm

February is Stone Soup month! Bring a cup of veggies or protein to add to our soup broth. It will simmer all morning and be ready for lunch. Fresh bread/rolls will also be served.

Anyone who still wishes to donate half-square triangle blocks to our charity quilt project can do so in February. We already have two quilt tops organized, and any final blocks handed in at the February Sewing Circle will go into the third quilt top. Thanks, everyone, for your outstanding participation!

New faces are always welcome at Mannheim. Bring a project of your choice to work on; tea and coffee will be available. Directions can be found in your guild handbook or on the WCQG website. Your $4 contribution helps pay the cost of the room rental.

Please note: In case of inclement weather: if schools are closed in the morning, the Mannheim Sewing Circle will be cancelled. Call Megan Stauch or Tamara Gilhuly if you have any questions

Scrappy Snowball Quilts

For each snowball block you need four 2½" squares and one 6½"

With right sides together, sew the 2½" squares "almost" diagonally to each corner of the 6½" square. If instead of sewing a straight line, you slightly curve the line towards the corner, you are more likely to get a perfect fit. Before trimming the small square to a ¼" seam allowance, check for accuracy by finger-pressing toward the corner.

Trim the excess of the small square.

Marble Guessing Game Winner

Congratulations to Susan S. Pearson, whose guess was the closest to the number of marbles in the jar at January's guild meeting. There were 892 and Susan guessed 898. Well done, Susan!

<http://sewmanyways.blogspot.ca/2010/06/tool-time-tuesdayi-think-i-have-screw.html>

Thank you, Emily Hunsberger for forwarding this cute way of hanging up your tape measure collection.

Rapid Resizer is an amazing way to take a small picture or pattern and 'super-size' for appliqué purposes. Al Cote suggested this website, <http://online.rapidresizer.com/> during his presentation at January's guild meeting. It is free to make an outline drawing of your picture in its original size, then there are fees to expand your original to whatever size you require, print it and tape the pieces together.- Marg Sandiford

LOOK WHAT I FOUND ON THE INTERNET DEPT.

Have you found something quilt related on the internet that you think other guild members would appreciate?

Maybe an idea for a boutique item, an interesting pattern or technique?

Send the link to margsandiford@hotmail.com and it might just appear in this space.

Please include whether it is free or not and all the contact information.

Quilting Tip of the Day: Dawn dishwashing soap is great to wash your finished quilts. It's similar to Synthrapol, a detergent dyers use to keep fugitive dyes from redepositing on fabric. I use just a tablespoon or two per quilt so it doesn't foam up the machine. I also wash new fabric with it for the same reason. (Wash new fabric in HOT water.) Cheap and available everywhere.

Thank you, Helene Doerfler for forwarding this hint from <http://www.42quilts.com/>

Quilt Exhibit Boutique Ideas

Mug Bags

Here is Emily Hunsberger's prototype for a mug bag. With so many meetings providing tea and coffee, this would be a good boutique item for those who like to bring their own mug. The yo-yo makes it easy to identify the owner. Emily cut 2 rectangles (1 for the bag and 1 for the cover) of the denim quilted fabric, boxed the corners and added a handle. (No pattern available)

Soup Bowl Cozy Pattern

<https://happyhourstitches.com/2016/12/19/soup-bowl-cozy-pattern/>

Ever burn your fingers while taking a bowl out of the microwave? Here's a free pattern to make these cozies with 2 10" squares of 100% cotton and 2 squares of cotton batting. (Anything with polyester or metallic may catch on fire.)

Pincushion Thread Catcher

<http://www.merrimentdesign.com/pincushion-thread-catcher.php>

Here's a cute and useful gift: a weighted pincushion with your own personal trashcan for stray threads and empty spools.

Do you have an idea or an inspiration, possibly from pinterest, that others might like to make for the boutique? Please send the link to margsandiford@hotmail.com so we can share these ideas in the newsletter. For those receive a paper copy of the newsletter, please contact Marg at 519-886-4162; I'd be happy to print a copy of a pattern for you if you are not able to print it yourself, and bring it to the next guild meeting.
