Waterloo County Quilters' Guild

President's Message: Coping with Change

As I began to write this message, I reflected on the journey we have all taken over this past year. Our world, our communities, our families, and our daily lives have experienced so much change in the last ten months – all changes that a year ago we could not have even imagined – experiencing one lock down, now a second one, limited contact with family and friends, wearing masks, (and everything associated with these) as well as a hope that newly developed vaccinations and COVID-19 treatments may help us return to a more normal lifestyle.

During these months of so much change, we have adapted not only in our own day to day lives, but also as a guild. We have successfully moved from in-person to on-line guild meetings. Our average attendance for our Zoom Guild Meetings is about 120 participants, with 70 – 90 members watching the video recording available after the meeting. A wide variety of workshops with speakers from near and far have been offered on Zoom. We introduced "Sewing Together, But Apart" days where interested guild members (ranging from 25 to most recently 42 participants) spend a full day each month on-line socializing and learning together. In late January we began to enjoy free "Open Sewing Days" on Zoom on Monday afternoons. While we are unable to travel ourselves, we introduced "Casey, the Travelling Quiltcase" that travels from one member's home to another. Our guild members have continued to support our community outreach programs, and we have, in fact, increased significantly, the number of organizations we have supported – everything from our Smile, PAL, Lot 42, Touch and Memory quilts to sewing thousands of masks, donating to oneROOF and creating and donating stuffed animals cuddled in mini-quilts. Most recently members have been invited to contribute blocks that will be used to create Quilts of Valour. In addition, we have created an on-line store to make it easier to register for guild events. What an amazing and successful response to change! So much to celebrate in the last ten months as we have adapted to these unprecedented challenges and changes. This would not have been possible without the positive support and the willingness of our members to embrace change.

A year ago, as our guild executive considered how to respond to the challenges we faced – it was either find a way to adapt or do nothing and wait. We chose the route of introducing new learning, providing support so our members could learn this new technology and above all trying to respond in a positive way to meet these challenges. There are many quilt guilds across the province and the country that did not change and therefore have not been able to meet.

I share this summary because I believe anything worth doing is worth celebrating – and it is important for all of us to celebrate that we have made these amazing changes so successfully. We have grown and learned together – and our journey is not yet over.

We do not know what the months ahead will bring or how long we will need to continue to meet on-line. The Executive is continuing to plan for the months ahead. We recently made a difficult decision about our Quilt Exhibit (more information about this later in the newsletter). At this point our plans are to remain on-line using Zoom for our guild events, perhaps even into the fall. Only time will determine when and how we will be able to return to any semblance of normal, e.g. meeting in person, use of the library resources, etc. At this point there are simply too many unknown factors, and our priority must be maintaining the safety of our guild members as we make any future decisions. (Continued on page 3)

The Waterloo County Quilters' Guild provides an opportunity for quilters to learn in a supportive, sharing, social environment. We encourage you to get the most out of your membership by becoming more deeply involved in the guild.

February Speaker—Kelly DuMaresq

Our February speaker is Kelly DuMaresq who comes to us from Markham, Ontario. Kelly has been quilting for over 20 years and has a passion for scrap quilts - making them and teaching them. Her focus is on traditional quilts and finding easy and efficient ways of making the basic units used in these quilts. Her true joy is to share her love of quilting and to encourage others to dig into their own scraps.

Her presentation will highlight the scrap quilts she has made and she will share lots of ideas for you on how she puts them together, what make scrappy quilts work, ways to approach scrap quilts, and more. She will also share her strategies for managing our scraps so they inspire us to use them!

February Workshop - SOLD OUT!

On Saturday, February 27th, Kelly will be leading an ideas workshop via Zoom that will be a fun day all about using our scraps. She will review what makes a scrappy quilt work, ways to approach these quilts, etc. There isn't a specific quilt project on which you will be working during this workshop. Instead, Kelly will be showing lots of ideas for scrap quilts using strips and at least 10 different patterns. You will be making some of the samples for easy future reference using your own scraps. In Kelly's words - "You will play and you will have fun".

Perhaps even when we can return to in-person activities, we may continue to keep some aspects of the on-line events as well, e.g. STBA, Open Sewing Days, Executive Meetings, etc.

A quote from Gilda Radner sort of sums up for me where we are right now:

"Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next."

So – let us enjoy our current moments, make the best of them, and look ahead with hope and optimism. We are blessed to have a hobby that keeps our minds challenged and occupied learning new skills and refining familiar skills while keeping our hands busy in such a positive, productive way.

Hope you all enjoy the celebrations of February – Groundhog Day – may we hope for an early spring! Pancake Tuesday – a great day to enjoy a mountain of pancakes or waffles with syrup! Happy Valentine's Day – I encourage you to call or email a quilting friend and wish them a happy Valentine's Day!

Happy quilting everyone. Stay safe.

Inge Ford

A link to purchase the pattern will be sent to registrants.

Paper piecing with freezer paper is like magic! All the precision of paper piecing, but no ripping out tiny bits of paper at the end. In this 2 hour virtual workshop, you'll learn how to paper piece with freezer paper using Leanne's 'Burst' pattern. 'Burst' is a great scrap buster and the pattern includes three size options—mini, throw and large lap. No previous paper piecing experience is needed. As long as you're comfortable with your sewing machine, you'll be able to experience the magic as you create your own 'Burst' quilt.

PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE 2021

Create a wall hanging, mini-quilt, table topper or pillow for the theme:

“Home is where your heart is”

Requirements: What does the phrase “Home is...” mean to you? Members are invited to create a piece that addresses this theme. Use any colours, fabrics and embellishments you wish. Completed projects must have a maximum perimeter of 100 inches. Please take a photo of your completed project and send it to Kathy Bissett by May 10th, 2021.

Open Sewing Days

We recently introduced a new opportunity for interested guild members. Every Monday afternoon from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. a Zoom meeting is open for anyone who wishes to participate in an Open Sewing Time. This is a free activity. Come and join the fun. Put your computer or tablet by your sewing machine or bring your hand quilting, crocheting, knitting or quilt binding and join us as we sew, socialize and learn from each other in a very relaxed atmosphere. No agenda – just an informal get together to enjoy some quilting fun! For those members who are working and unavailable during the day or anyone for whom Monday afternoons is inconvenient, we will periodically provide Open Sewing opportunities on Zoom during an evening or on a Saturday. Watch the Friday email for updates. The Zoom link for the Monday afternoon days will always be included in the weekly email, and if any evening or Saturday sewing times are available, they will be provided as well. There is no need to register and there is no cost involved. Hope you are able to join us.

Quilt Exhibit

At our executive meeting on January 27, the decision was made to postpone the Quilt Exhibit to October, 2022. The executive realized that the many restrictions caused by the Covid 19 pandemic make it impossible to do the planning and preparations necessary for the exhibit to proceed in the fall of 2021. With many unknown factors with regard to vaccinations and ongoing health and safety issues, executive members felt that it would be irresponsible to place our members and potential visitors in danger of contracting the disease.

However disappointing this news may be to many of you, the delay offers us all more time to create wonderful items for the 2022 show. With inspiring speakers at our monthly Guild meetings, STBA days, workshops and Open Sewing Time days, there are many opportunities to learn a new technique or skill and discover some new ideas for a quilt to display at next year's exhibit. It is our hope that all our members will remain healthy and happily engaged in making projects as we prepare for an exciting exhibit in 2022.

SLAB BLOCKS / WINDOW OF HOPE / QUILTS OF VALOUR CANADA QUILT

Many of you may be aware of the amazing job that Quilts of Valour Canada does in honouring the ill and injured members of our Canadian Armed Forces. At this time of isolation, perhaps one way to keep our spirits up is to do a service for others. This is why we have invited all guild members to sew a Slab block (or blocks) to make a Window of Hope Quilt for QOVC.

We will be using the blocks from our travelling quiltcase to complement any others that are made.

Here are the instructions:

Fabrics used should be new, good quality 100% cotton. Do not use repurposed fabrics (i.e.: old shirts, blue jeans, etc.) Choose a colour. Start with small bits or big ones, it doesn't matter. Raid your scrap bins and go with what you have. Take two pieces of fabric and sew them together. Do that a few more times. Make sure to add a white piece of fabric in one of the pairs. Then start sewing more pieces to those first pairs. Add additional pieces of fabric as necessary to get up to your finished size of 12½ inches square.

The inspiration for these blocks is the "Missing U" quilt from the book, 'Sunday Morning Quilts' by Amanda Jean Nyberg and Cheryl Arkison. Some of you may remember making these blocks in 2017 when CQA endorsed the slab block quilts that were made for Ronald McDonald Houses across Canada.

The drop off date, time and location for the finished blocks will be announced in the March newsletter. As these are 12½ blocks, we will need 42 blocks to make one 72" x 84" quilt. We hope you will keep your hands and hearts busy by supporting this worthy cause. - Deby Wettges

Sewing Together, But Apart Days

Spend the day together, sharing and learning, while staying safe.

Our Sewing Together, But Apart Days (STBA) are continuing in the New Year. We are excited to announce plans for February and March.

Interested guild members are invited to join us on any of our STBA days. Join us for part or all of the day. We will spend the day sewing, sharing ideas in small and large groups, learning through video experiences and through the guest speakers who will join us each afternoon.

If you are interested, please register for these days on our website through the on-line store. Detailed information and the Zoom link for each day will be sent to all registered participants the day before each STBA Day.

Guest speakers during the afternoon for each of the next two months' STBA Days include –

Wednesday, February 10 – Lori Dickman from Rockford, Illinois, will share a lecture called “My Favourite 3-D’s: Diamonds, Dresdens and Drunkards Paths”. Her presentation will feature over 30 of Lori’s favourite 3-D quilt designs with styles that will cover every quilter’s favourites – from traditional to applique to modern and everything in between.

Wednesday, March 10 – Kellie Willey of “Little Quilt Creations” from Sacramento, California is passionate about making miniature and small-scale quilts. She has won many awards for her little quilts. She will share tips and techniques that will take the fear out of miniature quilting. She will also share many examples of her miniature quilts.

More information about each of our STBA days can be found on our website in the on-line store. We look forward to having you join us. What better way to spend a wintery day than to join us for a day of sewing, socializing and learning!
