

December 13, 2023

After registering for this day, please send an email to fordinge@gmail.com as requested on the home page of the website. Now, about the STBA day... Join us for all or part of the day. We will gather at 9:00 a.m., enjoy time together as a large group, move into small groups and provide time for socializing and individual sewing.

For this month, we are featuring two speakers. In the morning Robin Bogaert from "Quilting in the Loft" in Waterloo Region, will share her trunk show called "Significant Quilts in My Quilting Journey". Join us as Robin shares her trunk show which features a progression of quilts from beginner to quilt shop owner, a quilter / quilting teacher having fun and experimenting, and now quilting as a business. Robin will also talk a bit about her long arm quilting, Bernina Ambassadorship and writing for the sewing industry.

In the afternoon, Lori DeJarnatt joins us from Oregon and shares her lecture - Quilts Through the Seasons:

Lori shares that she never thought she would be making big and small quilts to celebrate each season, but with 20+ years of quilting her home is now filled with quilts that reflect each season. This lecture will show you how to look at your quilts as seasonal décor, giving you a great reason to show off your beautiful quilts. (Or make more!) With December being a time of year when there are many celebrations, this trunk show and lecture will provide lots of inspiration for how we can use our quilts - at any time of year - as seasonal decor. Come and be inspired with this very unique presentation.
