

Vision:

The Waterloo County Quilters' Guild (WCQG) promotes the art of quilting.

Mission:

WCQG fosters all styles of quilting for its members and the community at large, through lectures, workshops, shows and philanthropy.

Values:

WCQG provides education to its members and guests by offering speakers and workshops throughout the year.

WCQG encourages its members to participate in the philanthropic practice of donating quilts and quilted items to various organizations either through the guild or privately.

WCQG promotes an inclusive, respectful, and safe environment for all members to learn and grow.

WCQG hosts a Quilt Exhibit open to the public to promote the art of quilting throughout the community.

WCQG provides opportunities for its members to volunteer to help strengthen the guild.

WCQG provides opportunities for members to showcase their talents.

WCQG conducts business without monetary gain to any member with the exception of guest speaking and teaching as stated in the Standing Rules.
